1. CADprofi A.Czubek, J.Kosiorek s.c. (http://www.cadprofi.com/main/contact/impressum) is the administrator (controller) of personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679), which the user made available, in order to provide services that are subject to these regulations.
2. Data is being provided by the user at the stage of registering the license in the program or on the cadprofi.com (http://www.cadprofi.com/main/support/support/activation) website and at the stage of making corrections or updating data.
3. Each user has the right to access their personal data, the right to rectify, correct, delete or limit processing, as well as the right to object to the data processing, to transfer data and the right to make a complaint to the supervisory body. For more information about your personal data being processed you can contact the administrator directly (http://www.cadprofi.com/main/buy/cadprofi-direct/2-cad-profi).
4. Administrator collects and stores the following user data provided during the registration of the license:
   a. name and surname,
   b. company name (in the case of customers running a business),
   c. address of residence/operation/headquarters,
   d. phone number,
   e. e-mail adress.
5. Administrator collects and stores the data that was provided during the registration of the license in order to provide the user with technical assistance, license information as well as sales and after-sales services.
6. User data will be processed by the administrator for the duration of having an active license of the program, and in the case of the license expiration, for the period provided for in the applicable law in order to resolve complaints and claims related to the use of the program.
7. User data may be transferred to other entities (including entities based outside the European Economic Area), if it is necessary to provide technical support, sales, after-sales and accounting services.
8. All data collected by the administrator are protected using reasonable technical and organizational measures and security procedures in order to protect them against access by unauthorized persons or against their unauthorized use.
9. Approval for data processing can be withdrawn at any time, but if user decides to withdrawn his approval, he will not have his license assigned, and therefore will not have rights to update the program, receive technical assistance and obtain license information.

Marketing approval granted during the registration of the license

1. User agrees to receive newsletter and commercial information sent by electronic means. Sent messages are mostly related to news in the program and promotional offers.
2. Approval for sending marketing content is voluntary. However, the demo version of CADprofi program, as well as programs from the CADprofi OEM (CP-Manufacturers) series are made available to users free of charge, but only if the user agrees to the processing of their data for marketing purposes. In the absence of such approval, user should uninstall these programs.

3. Approval for sending marketing content can be withdrawn at any time. If during the approval period the personal data have already been transferred to third parties (eg partners participating in the CADprofi OEM/CP-Manufacturers programs), the withdrawal of marketing approval applies only to data that is currently processed by CADprofi.
